RentItService WCF web service Controller Class responsible for controlling the general flow of the program. Logger Class responsible for logging activity in the controller. FileSystemHandler Class responsible for commucation with the filesystem of the server. Dao Class responsible for communication with the persistence framework. TrackPrioritizer Class responsible for prioritizing the next track to be played on a radio station